How can SIM Content Enhancement Routines be used to build student skill in argumentation? Frequent practice with appropriate scaffolding across all content areas is needed for all students to master higher order thinking skills such as argumentation. Learn how we are leveraging cross-content grade level teams to increase the frequency and quality of implementation of the Scientific Argumentation Routine, how the routine can be adapted for use outside of science and how other Content Enhancement Routines can support Scientific Argumentation.

Presenter: April Maitner
Co-Presenter: Janice Creneti