This session will focus on the new addition to the Writing Strategies Curriculum related to teaching Persuasive and Argumentative Writing. Participants will learn about teaching a variety of Persuasive and Argumentative Themes including those with counterarguments and examples. They will also learn how to prepare students for writing competency exams, the ACT, and the SAT.

Presenter: Jean Schumaker