

Christy Palmquist

Special Education Teacher | St. Paul Public Schools | St. Paul, MN |

Christy Palmquist is a special education teacher in the St. Paul Public Schools, and has been in education for 25 years. For the past six years she has been the district literacy intervention coach for the Office of Specialized Services, overseeing, coaching, and supporting several programs, including the Fusion Reading Intervention Program. Christy is responsible for the professional development of all of these programs.