

Dana McCaleb

Coordinator and SIM Professional Development Leader | Virginia Department of Education Trainint and Technical Assistance Center at Virginia Tech | Blacksburg, VA

Dana is a coordinator at the VDOE T/TAC at Virginia Tech and a SIM™ Professional Development Leader. She is responsible for providing leadership and guidance to 34 school divisions in south-west and southside Virginia. Dana provides high quality professional development and coaching to teachers and administrators implementing evidence-based and inclusive practices. Dana has worked with students with and without disabilities at the secondary level for more than twenty years. Her specialties include SIM, CLC™, Fusion Reading®, tiered interventions, inclusive practices, instructional coaching, teacher leadership, and school-wide change