

Holly Dubiel

Curriculum and Assessment Specialist - English Language Arts |
Center for Assessment and Accountability Research and Design |
The University of Kansas | Lawrence, KS

Ms. Dubiel is an assistant researcher in English language arts where she applies her teaching experience to develop formative lessons. She also develops the learning maps model for the Enhanced Learning Maps project. She taught secondary English language arts courses in Kansas for 13 years prior to working for the Kansas Assessment Program and the Enhanced Learning Maps project at the Achievement and Assessment Institute. Dubiel received a bachelor's degree in Secondary Language Arts Education and a master's degree in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Kansas.

<https://enhancedlearningmaps.org/>