

Elise Heger

Elementary Principal, Doctoral Candidate, Educational Researcher |
Hugoton Public Schols | Hugoton, KS

Elise Heger has been in the field of education for 15 years. She holds an M.S. degree in Curriculum and Instruction and an M.S. degree in Educational Leadership. She is a doctoral candidate at Southwestern College in Winfield, Kansas. During her time in education, she has been a classroom teacher, building leader, and a district leader. Elise is currently serving as the Director of Curriculum and Instruction/ Intermediate School Principal at USD 210. She is also the owner of Educator's Navigator Consulting. Specializing in instructional coaching for administrators and teachers, Elise focuses on building a collaborative capacity between administrators and teachers. With a deep understanding of how to unpack and address state standards, Elise helps teachers develop classroom tasks that not only align to standards, but provide students and teachers with authentic learning experiences. Elise has also worked with districts as they develop new initiatives. By facilitating discussions between district leaders, building leaders, and teachers, Elise takes the guesswork out of developing a process for embedding new initiatives.

More information may be found at: <http://www.educatorsnavigator.com>