

Diane Gillam

Virginia Project Manager, KUCRL | Manakin Sabot, VA

Diane C. Gillam is the Virginia Project Manager at the University of Kansas Center for Research on Learning. In her current position, she is overseeing the implementation of the CLC model in school sites across the commonwealth. This includes responsibility for orchestrating all CLC planning, implementation, and evaluation activities in all target sites.

Ms. Gillam earned a M.Ed. in special education from James Madison University and is also a certified professional developer in the Strategic Instruction Model. Prior to her current position, she provided leadership at the Virginia Department of Education as a specialist in the Office of Special Education Instructional Services, taught in the classroom for 16 years, served as an administrator, and was an educational consultant in a university setting.