

Sue Vernon

Educational Consultant, Social Perspective, LLC | Lawrence, KS

Sue Vernon, Ph.D., has over 30 years of experience working with youth, parents, and educators. She has been the Principal Investigator on 14 grant projects from the Department of Education, the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development, and the National Institute of Mental Health to develop and validate instructional programs for at-risk populations. She is the first author on nine instructional programs, eight multimedia, interactive professional development CD programs, and four interactive multimedia CD programs for teaching social skills and communication strategies. Dr. Vernon is a research affiliate with the KU Center for Research on Learning, a guest lecturer in graduate-level university courses, and president of Social Perspective, LLC, a small counseling, consulting, education and research business that she co-founded in 2011.