

Anna Stubblefield

Assistant Superintendent, Educational Support & Equity | Lawrence, KS

As Assistant Superintendent of Educational Support and Equity for the Lawrence Public Schools, Anna Stubblefield oversees finance, human resources, food service, purchasing, and printing. She also assists in the hiring, supervision and evaluation of school principals. With a background that spans multiple divisions: teaching and learning, business and operations, and educational programs and technology, Anna's leadership has been invaluable in regards to school improvement and organizational change.

Prior to joining the Lawrence school district, Anna served six years as an assistant principal in Blue Valley schools (Overland Park, KS) and four years as a teacher and coach in the Center schools (Kansas City, MO). In 2008, Anna became building principal of Liberty Memorial Central Middle School in the Lawrence School District. In 2012, she joined district level administration in Lawrence as Human Resources Director before accepting the position of Assistant Superintendent of Educational Support in 2016.

Anna earned her Doctorate in Educational Leadership from Saint Louis University, Educational Specialist's (Administration) degree from the University of Missouri at Kansas City and holds a Masters and Bachelors in Education Administration from the University of Kansas.
