

Whitney Miller

Coordinator and SIM Professional Development Leader | Virginia Department of Education T/TAC at Virginia Tech | Blacksburg, VA

Whitney is a coordinator at the VDOE T/TAC at Virginia Tech and a SIM™ Professional Development Leader. She graduated from Radford University with a Master of Science degree in the area of high incidence disabilities, K-12, and in the spring of 2009, she graduated from Virginia Tech with an Ed.S. degree in the area of administration and supervision. She has seventeen years of experience working with and instructing students with disabilities in both elementary and secondary public school settings.